GRAIN PRICES UP ON STORM NEWS

Corn and Oats Follow Wheat Quotations on Chicago Market—Bad Weather Over Wide Area.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Storms over a wide area, and a forecast of more to a decided advance today in the price of wheat. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 up, were followed by material gains and a moderate advance.

Rumors of export sales helped prevent a setback from being of more than a transient character. The close was strong, at an advance of 1/4 to 1 1/2 and 1 3/4.

Corn advanced with wheat. After opening 1/4 to 1/2 higher the market scored some further gains.

The close was steady at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 net gain.

Less favorable weather brought about a sharp upturn in oats.

The Day in Davenport

Another Charge Against Hawley.

Information has been filed against J. W. Hawley, arrested a few days ago on a charge of wife desertion in Mobile, Ala., charging the Davenport man with subornation. The Merrill Richards company is lower to the extent of $1,000. Hawley was released from the jail at Mobile Saturday afternoon and the information was sworn out that afternoon. According to the heads of the company, Hawley used confidential of the Richards company for securing on personal loans which totaled over $1,000. This was discovered shortly after his arrest on the wife desertion charge, when an examination of his books was instituted, and the North Harrison Trust & Savings bank served notice on the Richards company, John Benedict, secretary and manager of the Merrill Richards company, wrote out the information before Justice Roddewey Saturday afternoon, through the county attorney.

Robbers Get Small Haul in Breaking Safe.

Robbers gained entrance to the office of the Bischoff Express office, 313 Rock Island street, Sunday night and secured cash amounting to between $35 and $40. Entrance to the place was gained by means of a rear window. The glass had been broken, and with this aperture the lock was unfastened and the window raised. The robbers then gained entrance to the place and broke the lock on the safe. The cash box containing the amount above referred to was taken from the box. The robbers then escaped. Another "job" was reported in the same vicinity. It was that of the Hugel bakery on Third street, just at the rear of the Bischoff office. At the bakery the robbers secured a dozen 3-cent packages of tobacco and a box of cigars. Both crimes have been reported to the police.

Negro in Hiding in Steamer Hold.

William Biele, a negro deck hand on the steamer Morning Star, was discharged in Davenport by the mate and demanded that he be returned to St. Paul. This was refused and he declined to leave the boat. Police were summoned and he went into hiding in the hold of the boat. Later he was brought out and arrested and sentenced to spend 10 days in jail.

Final Warning to Auto Owners.

All owners of automobiles must have license numbers before Sept. 1 or they will be prosecuted, was the statement of the county attorney yesterday. County Attorney Johnson has but just returned from a conference with the secretary of state and the latter said that he could supply numbers within a week after receiving the order. According to statistics from the office of the state secretary, there are 500 who registered last year from this county who have not been heard from this year. Instructions will be issued to all police officers to arrest owners of all cars who do not bear a license number.

Divorce Suit of Felon Dismissed.

Dismissal of the suit for divorce filed by William C. Loomis, convicted of bank robbery, vs. Alice Loomis, has been filed by Attorney Fred Vollmer. Loomis, together with another man, held up the teller of the North Liberty, Iowa, Savings bank and secured over $1,000. Loomis returned here and started divorce proceedings against his wife. He was arrested here and imprisoned his partner. Both were tried and sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary. The suit against his wife was dismissed yesterday.

Body of Cuban Found in Slough on James Place.

The body of Frank Cuba, the farm hand who fell into the Wapello river on the Thompson farm near McKeandland Thursday night, was found yesterday on the old James farm on the Clinton county side. A mile down stream from the point where he disappeared. Max Grupp, present tenant of the old James place, and another man, employed by him, found the body, which had been washed into a slough out of the main stream. Grupp and his man were working on fences and the supply of wire gave out. They were returning to the house to get more, when, in crossing the slough, they came upon the body. It was about 10 o'clock in the afternoon, and they notified the coroner of Clinton county at once. The latter, however, informed them that the body was found in Clinton county it was the duty of the coroner of that county to take charge of the case. The Clinton county coroner came out as far as he could, secured information and decided that an inquest was not necessary, his verdict being "accidental drowning." Decomposition had set in and it was necessary to bury the body. Cuba's brother and his son, aged 22, had come down from Wisconsin to assist in the search and they were present for the brief and simple funeral service. They had
